Patrick Pithon is a Swiss qualified attorney specialising in international commercial and sports arbitration. He advises athletes, clubs and sports federations in a wide range of matters, particularly in proceedings before the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS). Additionally, he acts as counsel or secretary to the arbitral tribunal in commercial arbitration proceedings under various rules, including the ICC, LCIA, UNCITRAL, and Swiss Rules. He also advises clients in arbitration-related court proceedings in Switzerland, including actions to set aside Swiss arbitral awards or to recognise and enforce foreign arbitral awards.

Prior to joining LKK, Patrick worked as an associate in the sports and arbitration department of an international law firm in Geneva, and before that he gained experience as a junior associate in the litigation and arbitration department of a top-tier law firm in Geneva, and in the International Cooperation team of the Enforcement Division of the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA). He has also served as the Legal Coordinator of the Swiss Esports Federation and as the Co-Chair of the Swiss VYAP (Very Young Arbitration Practitioners).

Patrick holds a law degree from the University of Lausanne (summa cum laude) and is admitted to the Geneva Bar, where he ranked first in his class.
