Adrien specializes in international arbitration and dispute resolution. He advises and represents clients in both commercial and investment disputes, with a particular focus on the construction, infrastructure and energy sectors. He participated in more than thirty arbitrations under major arbitral rules (including ICC, ICSID, UNCITRAL) and numerous international disputes governed by a variety of procedural and substantive laws (including French, Swiss, Italian, Dutch, Belgian, English, Russian, Georgian, Iranian, Egyptian, Moroccan, Algerian, Cameroonian, Togolese, Ivoirian, OHADA and CISG). Adrien also acts as arbitrator, and advises and represents clients with respect to arbitration-related court proceedings.

Before joining LKK Arbitration, Adrien worked in the international arbitration department of a major international law firm and in a leading international arbitration firm in Paris. He also worked in-house for a major port operator. He has held teaching positions in the fields of international commercial arbitration, contract law, and the law of obligations at the Universities of Paris-Panthéon-Assas and Strasbourg.

Adrien is admitted to the Paris Bar and the Geneva Bar (EU/EFTA). He holds a Ph.D. in private international law (summa cum laude) and a master's degree in international law (summa cum laude) from the Universities of Strasbourg and Nantes.
