This book expounds the theory of international arbitration law. It explains in easily accessible terms all the fundamentals of arbitration, from separability of the arbitration agreement to competence-competence over procedural autonomy, finality of the award, and many other concepts. It does so with a focus on international arbitration law and jurisprudence in Switzerland, a global leader in the field.

- The third edition, and the first in English, of the best-selling and authoritative work Arbitrage international: Droit et pratique à la lumière de la LDIP
- Written by highly regarded arbitrators and scholars with unrivalled experience of international arbitration law and practice
- Provides a thorough review of the foundations of international arbitration law and a detailed analysis of Chapter 12 of the Swiss Private International Law Act
- Including comparative law perspectives and transnational arbitration practice
